

The Green Arts Conference Spotlight on Sustainability

Partick Burgh Halls, Glasgow
Wednesday 1st November 2017
10am—5.30pm

LOTTERY FUNDED

@CCScotland
#GreenArts

Welcome to our Green Arts Conference for Scotland:

Our annual event for environmental sustainability in the cultural sector.

Today is about gaining the knowledge and skills to achieve your green ambitions. We work with hundreds of Scottish organisations, and we continually impressed by their unique creative approaches to reducing their environmental impact.

We'll hear from a range of Green Arts Initiative members, as well as the public, private and third sector partners supporting the transition to a more sustainable Scotland.

We hope you enjoy the day, and that it encourages you to continue to 'shine the spotlight' on sustainability in your own organisation year-round!

Your Contributions

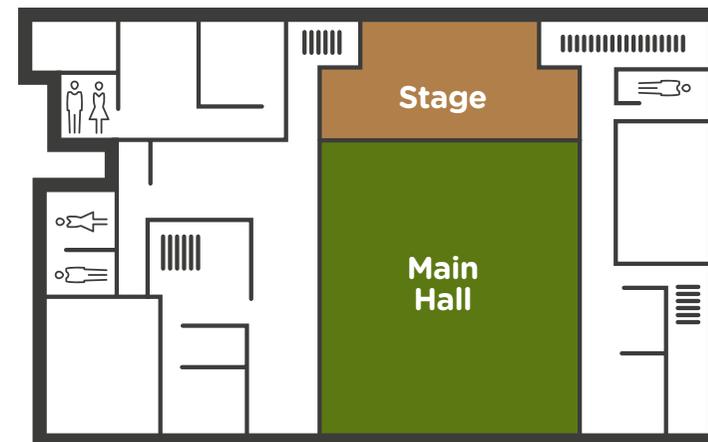

This conference is for you, and we want you to get involved as much as you can during the day: ask questions in sessions, talk to your fellow Green Champions and attendees, and take to social media to share your thoughts and learning.

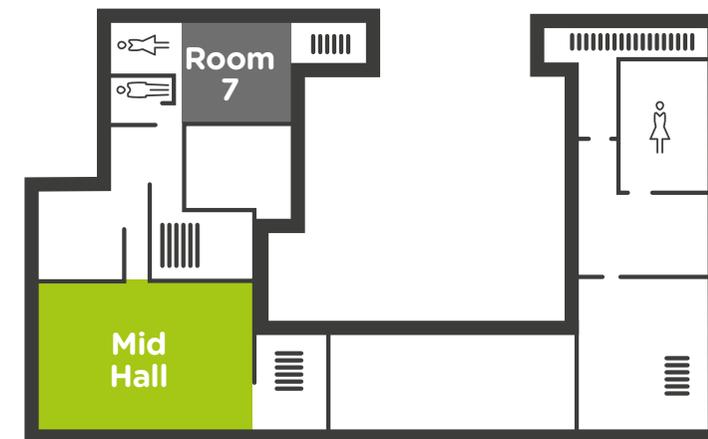

Connect to Glasgow Life's free Partick Burgh Hall wifi, and use @CCScotland or #GreenArts to connect with others present and at distance.

Venue Plan

Ground Floor

First Floor

Supported by

	10:10	11.00	11.30	12.00	12.30	13.00	13.30	14.00	14.30	15.00	15.30	16.00	16.30	17.00
Main Hall	Welcome	Creative Scotland	Carbon Management Planning	Sustainable Suppliers in Scotland			Adaptation Scotland			Workshop: ClaimExpenses.com	Workshop: Shaping the work of Creative Carbon Scotland	CCS 'Ask Me Anything'
Stage Space			Introduction to... Culture/SHIFT			Lunch		Show and Tell: ENGAGE The Lyceum and Julie Aitken Music	Show and Tell: ENGAGE Dundee Rep and Ayr Gaiety	Workshop: Communicating Sustainability to Stakeholders	Workshop: Communicating Sustainability to Stakeholders
Mid Hall			Introduction to... Carbon Management					Show and Tell: CHANGE Puppet Animation Scotland and Max Fordham	Show and Tell: CHANGE Starcatchers and the Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo	Workshop: Carbon Management	Workshop: Carbon Management
Room 7			Introduction to... Strategic Influencing					Show and Tell: SHIFT Woodend Barn and Kathy Hinde	Show and Tell: SHIFT Adaptation Scotland and North Edinburgh Arts	Workshop: Green Teams	Workshop: Green Teams			Drinks Reception

Our Central Space

This main hall is our central hub for the day, containing:

- Registration, session sign up and guidance materials.
- Several of our plenary sessions over the day, including those by funders and partners.
- All tea, coffee and lunch catering.

Stalls from suppliers and support organisations providing greater sustainability choices in the sector:

- PR Print and Design
- Resource Efficient Scotland
- Take One Media
- The Green Stationary Company
- Vegware

Our Spotlight Contributors

With key speakers from both the arts and from the wider sustainability sector, and a core focus on emerging policy, programmes, ideas and initiatives.

Organisation	Speaker Name	Talk Title
Creative Scotland	Kenneth Fowler	Carbon Management and the Environment Connecting Theme
Creative Carbon Scotland	Chris Asensio	What is Carbon Management?
PR Print and Design, Resource Efficient Scotland, Take One Media, The Green Stationary Company and Vegware	Phil Brady, Iwona Cameron, Glen Bennett, Jay Risbridger and Kate Chambers	Sustainable Supply Chains: How Green Suppliers can Help the #GreenArts
Adaptation Scotland	Anna Beswick	Adapting to Scotland's Changing Climate

Our Community Contributors

Our 'Show and Tell' area hosts short talks from Green Champions, themed around the different they have taken: 'engaging' others they work with in their sustainability efforts; 'changing' the nature of their work, and 'shifting' wider society through the influence of artistic engagement.

Organisation	Speaker Name	Talk Title
The Lyceum Theatre	Jackie Crichton	Sustainable Fundraising: The Lyceum Honey Bees
Julie Aitken Music	Julie Aitken	Engaging Freelancers: Insights from the Autumn Survey
Dundee Rep	Jaci Stewart	The 10 Point Plan: Initiation and Progress
Ayr Gaiety	Vince Hope	Sustainability in Programming: 'Climate Change Theatre Action'
Puppet Animation Scotland	Simon Hart	Getting There: The Artist Travel Research Project
Max Fordham	Duncan MacLennan and Ingrid Berkeley	Travel Planning and Capital Builds: Experiences in the Cultural Sector
Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo	Dan Withall	Achieving ISO2012-1: The Sustainable Event Management Standard
Starcatchers	Rebecca Leary	Innovation and Transformation: Environmental Sustainability in Arts and Early Years
Woodend Barn	Cath du Preez	Environmental Stewardship: Cultural Ecology in the Dee and the Don Catchments
Cryptic (Associate Artist)	Kathy Hinde	Phase Transition: Sculptural Sound for Global Climate Change
Adaptation Scotland	Anna Beswick	Adaptation Through Art: The Aberdeen Adapts Project
North Edinburgh Arts	Kate Wimpres	The Embedded Artist Project: Culture and Regeneration in North Edinburgh

Our Workshop Leaders

Programmed to develop the skills and initiatives of Green Champions, the workshops provide an insight into year-round support.

Workshop Theme	Workshop Leader
ClaimExpenses.com	Ben Twist
Carbon Management	Chris Asensio
Communicating Sustainability to Stakeholders	Mike Elm
Green Teams	Martin Latham
Shaping the Work of Creative Carbon Scotland	Alexis Woolley

Turning the Spotlight on Sustainability

The ideas from today are merely the starting point for taking new action in the arts sector. Use this as an opportunity to make the connections to build your networks and knowledge to take things further!

The Green Arts Conference is the key annual event for the Green Arts Initiative (GAI). Formed in 2013, the GAI is a community of over 190 organisations in Scotland committed to growing the environmental sustainability of the arts and reducing their own environmental impact. It supports the sharing of relevant knowledge, ideas and experiences, and enhances the sustainability competencies of arts organisations across the country.

@CCScotland / #GreenArts

Special Offer from Sonica Festival for Conference Attendees

7.30pm, 1 November, Tramway.

Cryptic is offering attendees a discount (£8, reduced from £15) for the opening night of Shorelines, which opens on the day of our conference!

Directed by Josh Armstrong, the music-theatre work has sustainability themes, exploring the impact of natural disaster, and mankind's relationship with the natural world.

Ticket-holders can book via the Tramway box office or over the phone using the discount code 'Green Shore'.

LOTTERY FUNDED