

Green Arts Initiative: 2021 Mini-Survey Results

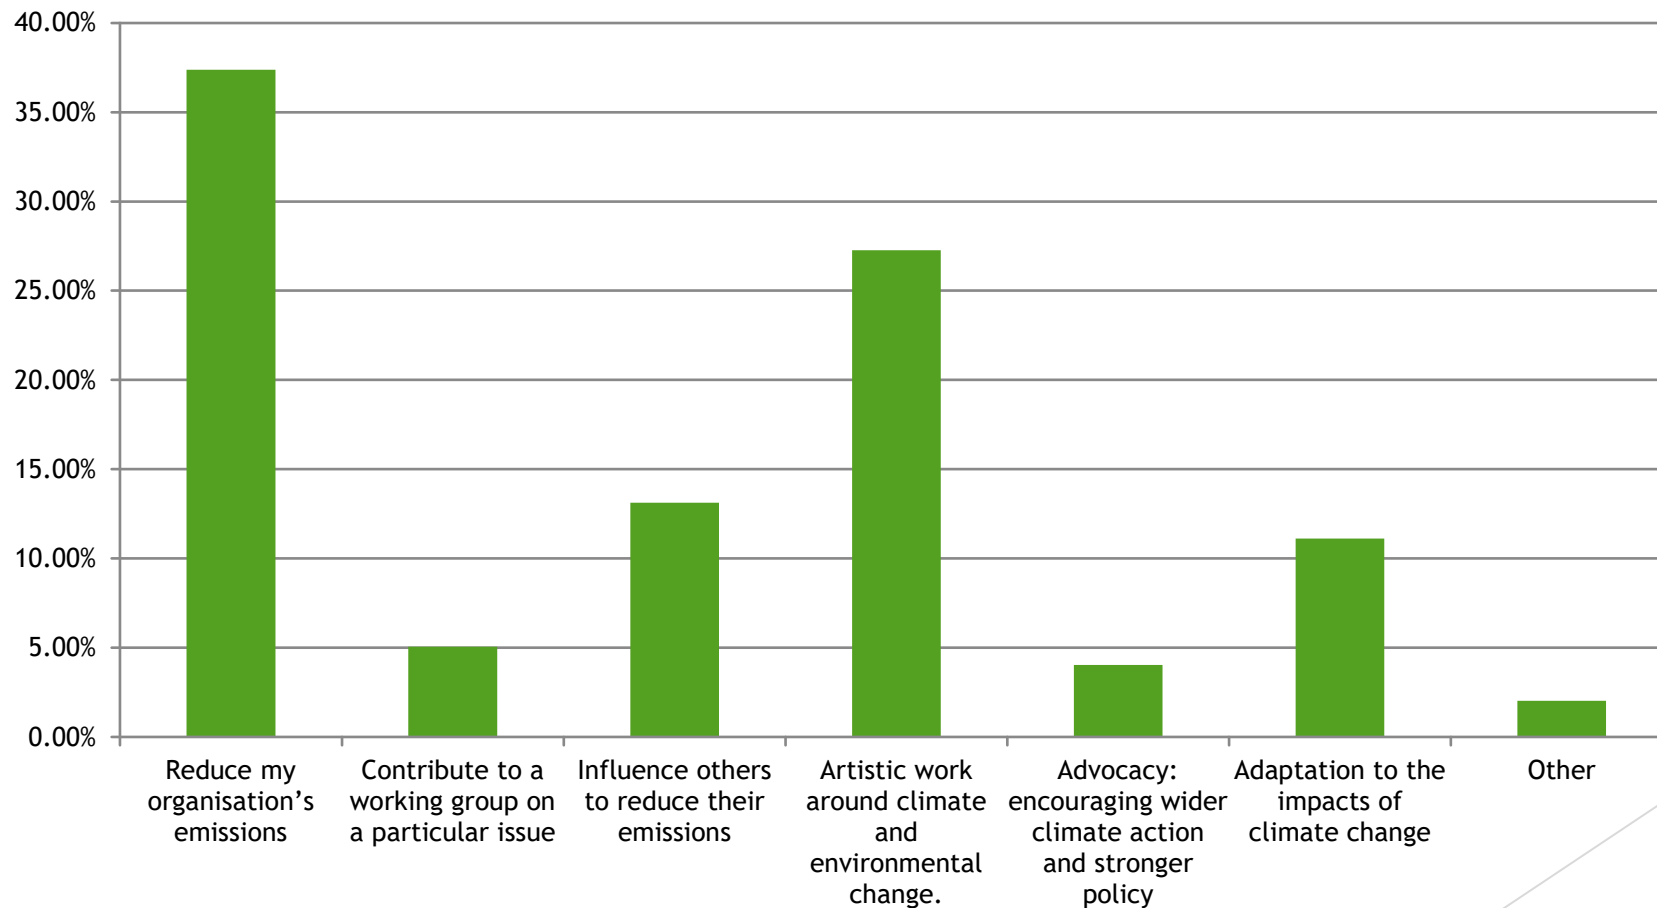

Results are shown as percentages out of 100 responses in total.
All results are anonymised, so the more qualitative and creative ideas have not been shared.

Which of the following categories best describes your organisation?

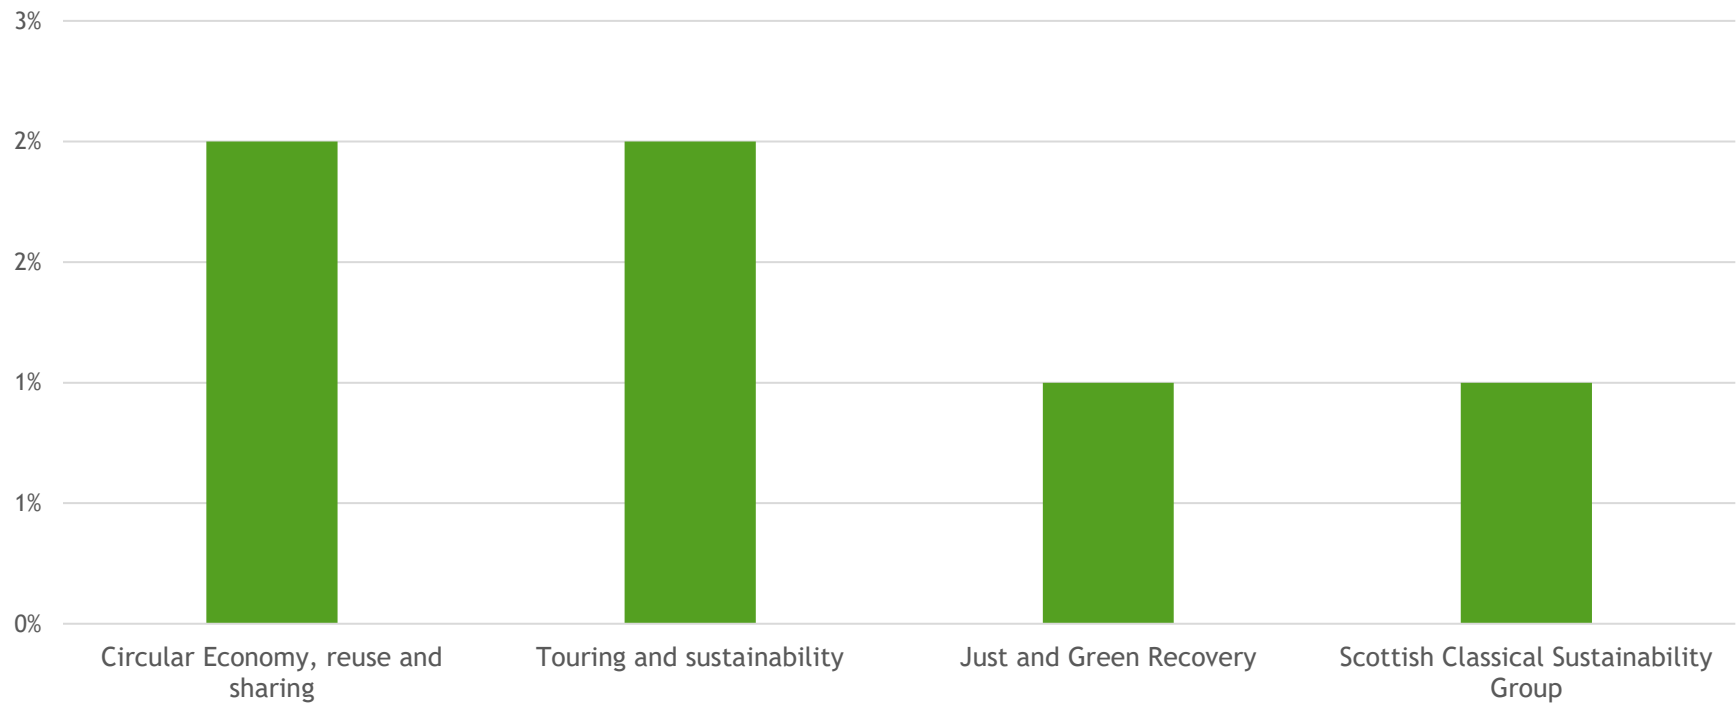

If you only take one action on sustainability this year, what will it be?

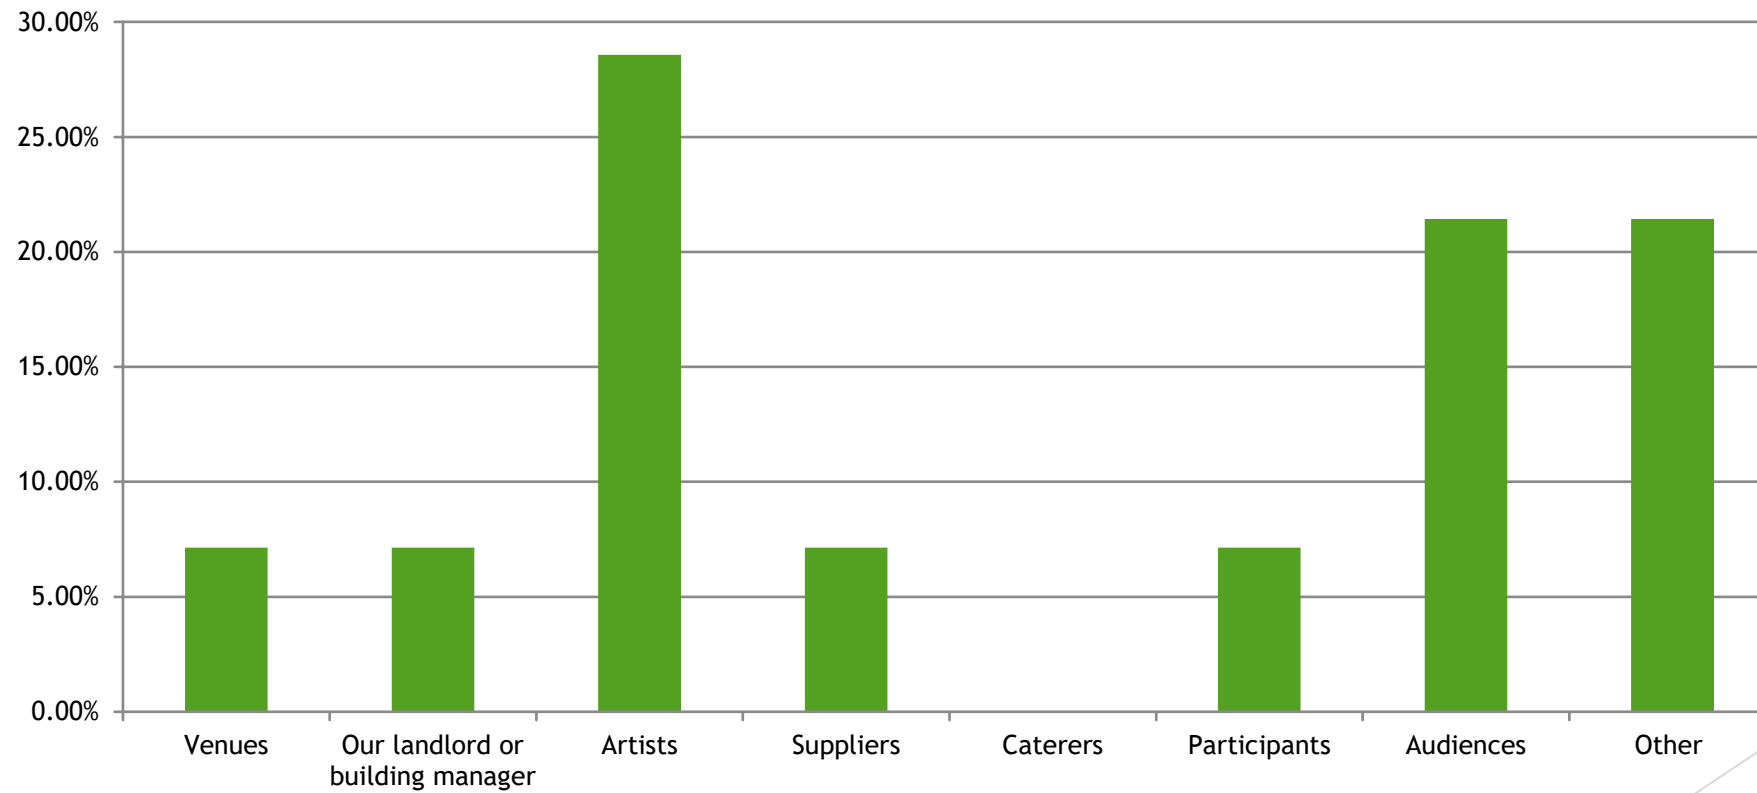

In which area will you reduce your organisation's emissions?

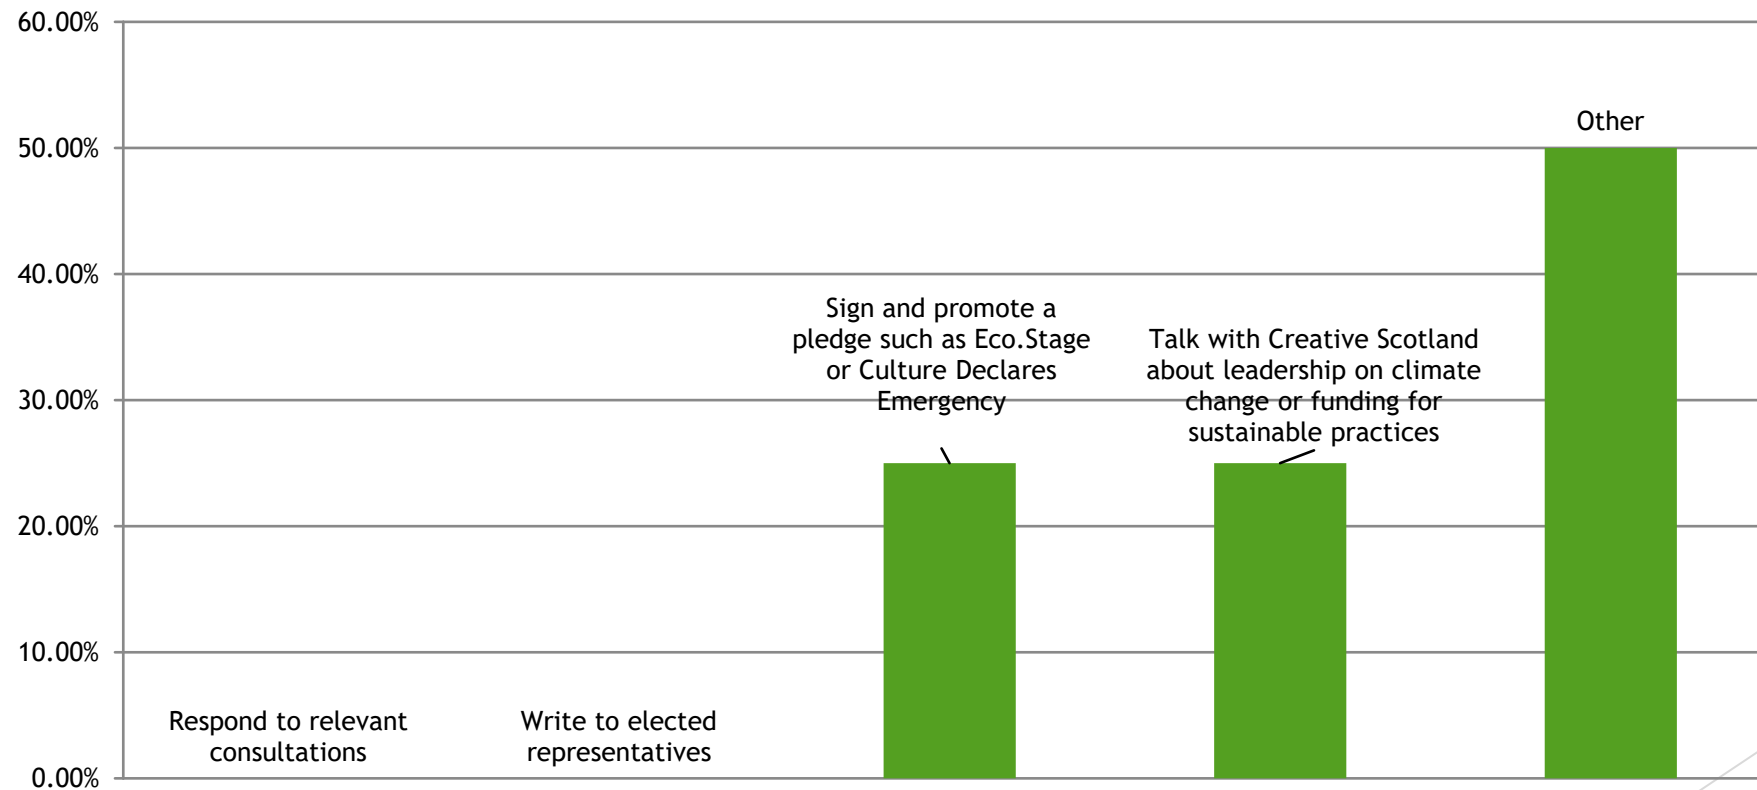

Working Groups: Which topic or artform would you like to work on with a group of Green Arts members?

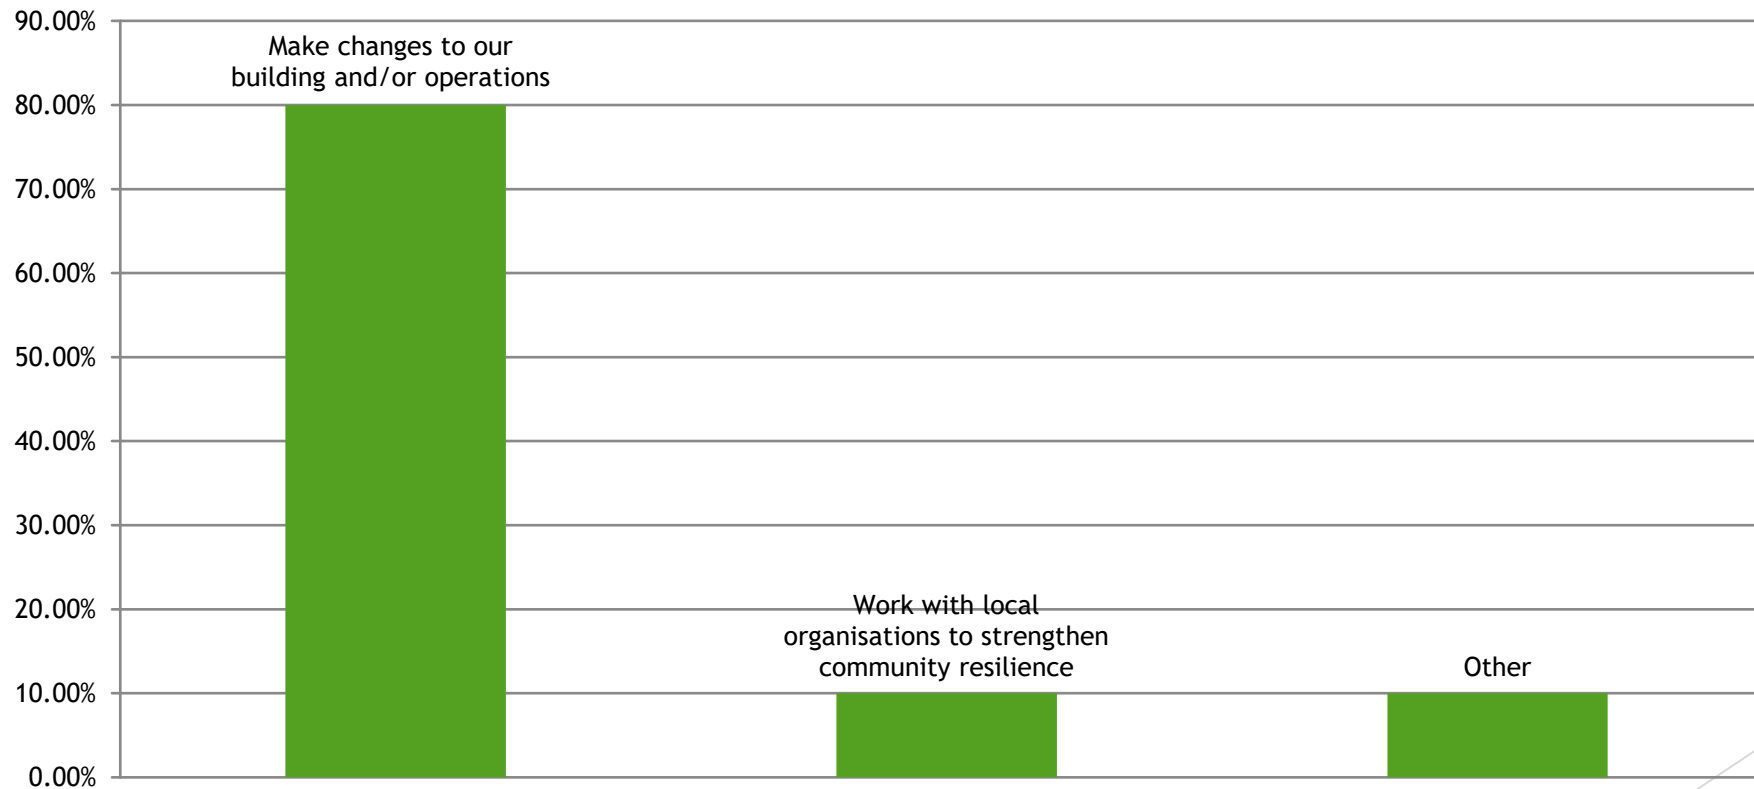

Who will you aim to influence?

What sort of advocacy action do you plan to take?

What sort of action do you plan to take to adapt to the impacts of climate change?

Word cloud showing the most used words from the qualitative responses space climate change performances initiatives need emissions create activities venue community much due programming theatre artists art sustainable resource focus change make members year theme environmental going planning engage work continue will one travel online new producing reduce use building part developing replace also action aim office Scotland business digital ways lighting available events HOME production Group support practices led also plan touring

Thank you to all those who completed the survey!

- ▶ Creative Carbon Scotland is using your answers to shape our Green Arts programme of events, activities and resources, to help you achieve your aims.
- ▶ There will be an opportunity to tell us how you got on with your planned action at the end of the year.